CALL BASES SUMMARY

The Deputy Director of Arts at the MNCARS will be responsible for the implementation of the exhibition program, public programs, presentations and growth lines of the Collection, restoration projects, supervision of the register and the work of the Library and archives, as well as the research apparatus necessary for its development. In this sense, it is a position of trust that will be in close contact with the Directorate. The remuneration of the position is 91,197.40 euros gross per year.

To be eligible, applicants must be Spanish nationals, nationals of an EU member state, or have a work permit or similar in Spain, as well as a university degree in a field related to the mission of the Museum. Among the required merits, a minimum of 8 years of professional experience is required, experience in positions of responsibility in institutions dedicated to contemporary culture, experience in curating exhibitions or public or teaching programs, publications in the cultural field, public communication skills, an international contact agenda, availability to travel, work and leadership skills, and proficiency in English and Spanish. An interview may be conducted to evaluate the candidate.

Applicants must submit a letter of motivation, a CV, and a sworn declaration stating that they are not disqualified from holding a public office. The process will be conducted online through the electronic website of the Museo Nacional Centro de Arte Reina Sofía and the deadline is 21 December 2023 at 23:59 (CET).

All participants in the selection process agree to guarantee absolute confidentiality, with the only exceptions established in this call to guarantee the publicity and competition required by law. Only the name of the selected person will be made public.

For detailed information, it is strongly recommended to read the call bases carefully and follow the relevant instructions. For any questions regarding the call bases or fulfill the application form, please contact gerencia@museoreinasofia.es.